No steps have been taken either to induce protestants to become Catholics or catholics to become protestants save only that Samuel Dunne esq. having three natural Children by a Catholic Woman gave strict orders that in future these Children should neither learn the Catholic catechism nor go to chapel but should [illegible] go to Church this school has gradually [illegible] since its commencement and the teacher thinks it would still continue to do so but for want of accommodation the house being too small the parents are very gratified with the improvements made since the commencement and the children are [illegible] that the teacher has not better accommodation [illegible] attention to their children is so manifest [illegible] Protestants and catholics are daily taught their own in this school
