Subject to no fixed Inspection - Occasionally visited by the Priest	Since its Establishment	Telemachus - Geography - Spelling Book - Think well Out - Imitation of Christ - Catechism by Archbishop & Primus No Bible of any Version -	No Interference to induce the Children to change their Religion see the general Observations at the end of this Column.	From the great desire that the Parents and Children of this Parish have for Instructions and the great sacrifices made by the Parents of the Children to send them to their badly accommodated Schools, to glean a sort of an Education it is evident that they w ^d gladly embrace any System of of Education afforded by his Majesty's Government that w ^d be consistent with their Religious feelings. Altho hundreds of them are now growing up in Ignorance they w ^d not accept of an Education on the present System of the Kildare S. Association. and w ^d it not be w ^d in the Government to instruct its ignom- -ant and despised subjects without an Interference with their Religious principles and feelings - I recommend the frequent perusal of the Sacred Scripture to the Parents. I shall never allow it be made a School Book for the Children - It's Divine Author never intended it as such in order that the Grant made by Government for the Instruction of the Irish poor should exert its Influence to the truly distressed and forlorn children of the Parish it is necessary that the Present System of the Association established for its disposal be now Modelled - let the Scripture be discontinued as a school book - let every Religion have its own Instruction let none of our Bishops or Priests have a Voice in the Disposal of the Grant - let salaries (and they need not be large) be given to Masters approved of by local Insp- -ctors - one a Protestant the other a Catholic - if this were done our poor people w ^d begin to feel that they owed to the state under which they lived - they w ^d find much of their Distresses to be removed and for what might remain a Remedy w ^d be suggested by the sources of Education -
