(Ad Calcem) — — — — —

There have been no steps taken by the Roman Catholic or Protestant Clergy of this Parish to induce any Person in these Schools to change their Faith, at least, not to my knowledge. I consider the Schools in this Parish diminished in consequence of the general Poverty of the Country; by far the greater number are not able to pay the Masters, or clothe their Children, and even vast numbers of those sent to School pay nothing. This diminution and secession must be permanent if not redressed by the present enquiry.

I consider the People well disposed to Educate their Children if they only had the means to do so: Should the Testament be continued or introduced as a School-book, I can only say, that such an introduction has, and shall always meet my disapprobation; and most particularly in those Schools where Protestants are Masters, and where every Fanatic intrude themselves as Preachers and Teachers of the Word.

I have been obliged for some time to withdraw the Catholic Children from the Barnchask School, in consequence of the fanaticism and indiscretion of D^r Daultin of N. T. Barry, who has lately called himself to the Jewish Mission. He tried all means to pervert my People and their Children, but all in vain, his endeavours were unsuccessful. If such conduct be tolerated, Education must necessarily suffer.

~~Choragall Sunday Schools~~

There are in the Parish of Moycomb 41 Sunday Schools held in the Chapels and in private houses. In these Schools are 873 Children are instructed in the principles and duties of Religion by 41 or more young Men and females of pious habits and well educated. These Schools have always subsisted in some form, but have been reorganized in 1815. The teachers have access to the parochial Libraries for such Books of instruction as are necessary for them.
And are superintended and assisted by the P. R. or his Curate in the Chapel before or after Mass.

Having no observations to make in addition to these in N^o 15. Parish of Barraah, therefore I refer the reader to them. I repeat it a second time that no attempts have been made in the Schools of this Parish to induce Protestants or Catholics to change their Creed: I further state, if there should, that neither the Priest or People would suffer any interference with the principles of their Religion.

Both Priests and People are extremely solicitous about the Education of the Children, however, would rather acquire a little in the manner in which they have always ^{been} accustomed, than hazard one tittle of their pure Religion in any School, (~~where its object to proselytise might be even suspected~~) where it might be imagined that its object was to proselytise.
