State the Name of the Place at which the School is held, and State the Name of the Townland.	State the Name of the Master or Mistress—at what time the School was first opened—and on what Days, and at what Periods of the Year, the School is held.	State the Religion of the Master or Mistress—and by whom (if by any one) he or she was appointed to the School, and when.	State the Age, Character, and Qualifications of the Master or Mistress, and where he or she was educated, and whether trained in Kildare Place, or elsewhere, and where.	State the Number of Pupils in attendance, on an average of 3 Months preceding this Return.	State the average Number of Pupils during the last Winter.	State the average Number of Pupils during the Summer of 1825.	State the proportion of Children in the School who can read—whether 2 in 20, 3 in 20, 4 in 20, or in what other proportion.—State also the average time required in the School to teach a Child to read.	State the total Annual Income of the Master or Mistress—including Salaries or annual Gratifications, if any, and from what sources they proceed—the Income arising from Payments by the Scholars—and the Rates of Payment required from them.	Describe the School-house—the nature of its accommodations—the Materials of its construction—and the probable cost of constructing one of similar size and Materials at present—State the length and breadth of the School-room—State also at whose Expense, and out of what Funds, the School-house was constructed.	State the Associations, Societies, Charitable Foundations, or Institutions, Confraternities, Convents, or Persons in any, and what Religious Orders, (if any) with which each School is in connection—and at what time, and under what circumstances such connection was formed—state also whether the rules prescribed by such Associations, &c. have been faithfully adhered to, or deviated from in any and what respects, and by whom, and when.	State the Names, Ranks and Situations in life, of local or other Patrons, or Superintendents, if any, of each School—and the nature, extent, and occasions of their Superintendence—and state in particular, the nature and extent of Superintendence exercised over the School by the Protestant Minister and Curate, or by the Roman Catholic Priest or Curator, or by any dissenting Minister, and whether they have any regular Days for visiting the Schools, and what days.	State the Time at which the School was taken under such Superintendence, as is referred to in the preceding Column.	Enumerate every book and printed paper, of every description, which is or has been read, taught, or in any way used, either for amusement or instruction, within the School, at the time of making this return, or within 6 Months previous to it, so far as you can learn—and state from what sources, and at whose expense they have been supplied.—In case the Scriptures are used, state whether it is the Bible at large, or the New Testament alone—whether the Translation used be that of the Established Church, or the Douay Version—how many copies of each are used in the School at the period of making the return—what was the greatest number of each at any period within the 6 Months next preceding, (as far as you can learn)—and state any cases which may have led either to the increased or diminished use of them within the School.	State whether any and what steps have been taken in the School, by whom, at what time, and in what manner, to induce Roman Catholics to become Protestants, or Protestants to become Roman Catholics.—State fully your Observations as to any increase, diminution, or cessation of Pupils, which has taken place, either within the present Year, or at any period, during the last few Years—the causes to which such are to be attributed, also the mode in which they have been effected, and the probability of their being permanent—the sentiments and opinions of the people as to the attendance of their Children at the School—the extent and degree in which any endeavours to induce such increase or diminution have been successful or otherwise—and any further general observations which you may deem it expedient to offer.
